 (we stop saying משיב הרוח מוריד הגשם)
- On Motzei Yom Tov Rishon we begin counting Sefirat Haomer
 - Shvi'i Shel Pesach the Book of Shir Hashirim is read
 - Yizkor is recited on the last day of Pesach

Helpful Reminders and Guidelines

Bedikat Chametz

Bedikat Chametz means the "search for chametz." We comb our homes for any chametz that we might have overlooked. This year, Bedikat Chametz will take place on Thursday evening, April 14. Any chametz found is set aside to be burned the next morning.

Burning the Chametz

On the morning of Erev Pesach, we burn the chametz. See page 2 for the latest time to burn your chametz.

The Fast of the Firstborns

Erev Pesach is a fast day for firstborn males (Ta'anit Bechorim). During the tenth plague, all the firstborns in Egypt died. G-d passed over the homes of the Jews and spared their firstborns. To commemorate this, firstborns fast on Erev Pesach. This year, the fast will be held on Friday, April 15.

Many congregations conduct a siyum. (The conclusion of a portion of Torah learning is a celebratory occasion that allows for a seudat mitzvah, a ritual feast). A siyum exempts firstborn males from fasting altogether.

Maot Chitim – money for the poor

Before Pesach, there is a custom to give Maot Chitim (literally, money for wheat). We donate money to the needy to help them buy matzot and other food for Pesach. Visit ou.org/hunger to support the OU's Maot Chitim campaign efforts, where money is given to poverty-stricken families to help them celebrate the holiday with happiness and dignity.

The following Sefirat Ha'omer pages are in memory of ר׳ יעקב צבי בן ר׳ אברהם רדין ז״ל

who was niftar on Chol HaMoed, Chai Nisan, 5780 - 3rd day of Sefirat Ha'Omer - תפארת שבחסד.

This is what Yaakov emanated - love of Torah, of Am Yisrael and of Eretz Yisrael.

We, his family miss his loving, happy demeanor yearningly.

As you count Sefira each day - may it be a z'chut for the continued aliya of his holy neshama and that of his twin brother, Yisrael z"l.

SEFIRAT HAOMER

Sign up for the OU daily sefirah reminder email @ www.ou.org/sefirah

Sefirah is the counting of seven complete weeks from the second evening of Pesach until Shavuot. The count, which takes place after nightfall for the following day, is preceded by the blessing only if done in the evening and no days have been missed in the count.

Visit www.ou.org/sefirah to receive an email reminder to count each day. Emails are pre-programmed to go out on each of the 49 days of the Omer to help make sure you don't forget to count!

Q. What is the reason for eruv tayshilin?

A. When Shabbos falls immediately after yom tov, it is rabbinically forbidden to cook or prepare on Yom tov for Shabbos. When executed properly, eruv tavshilin allows us to prepare on yom tov for Shabbos.

Interestingly, there is no Torah prohibition to cook or bake on yom tov for Shabbos, even though ostensibly we may only cook on yom tov for yom tov itself. The Gemara (Pesachim 46b) offers two reasons why this does not constitute a Torah prohibition:

- (a) Shabbos and yom tov are considered to be one unit, since the Torah refers to yom tov as Shabbos. Just as it is permitted to cook and bake on yom tov for yom tov, it is permitted to cook and bake on yom tov for Shabbos.
- (b) When we cook or bake additional food on yom tov, it is not a Torah violation because it is possible that we will need the food for unexpected guests who might arrive on yom tov.

If the Torah permits the preparation of food on yom tov for Shabbos, why did the Rabbis institute the eruv tavshilin in the first place? The Gemara (Beitzah 15b) gives two explanations:

- (a) When yom tov precedes Shabbos, we are prone to overlook the needs of Shabbos. The Rabbis therefore created a special, tangible preparation for Shabbos that must be attended to before the start of the yom tov, so people will remember to cook for Shabbos as well.
- (b) If we were to permit cooking on yom tov for Shabbos without any reminder, we might not understand the reason, and think it is permissible to cook on yom tov for the subsequent weekdays as well; if done late in the afternoon this would violate a Torah prohibition.

Q. What is the procedure for eruy tayshilin?

A. On erev yom tov, Thursday April 21, set aside two types of food, one cooked and one baked (Mishnah Berurah 527:5-6). If you cannot obtain both items, a cooked item alone would be acceptable, but a baked item alone would not suffice. The cooked item must be at least the size of a large olive (k'zayit, approximately half the size of a chicken's egg) and the baked item should be at least the size of a chicken's egg (k'beitzah). Since not all cooked foods are eligible to be used for the eruv tavshilin, and the laws are complex, there is a common custom to cook an egg on erev yom tov specifically for use as the eruv tavshilin.

Hold the selected items while reciting the bracha and subsequent Aramaic text, as they appear in the siddur. You must understand the text as it is recited; if you do not understand the Aramaic text, recite it in your native language (Rama 527:12).

When is the eruv tavshilin effective? Can I eat the eruv tavshilin food?

A. The eruv tavshilin allows us to prepare for Shabbos only on erev Shabbos, but not on a preceding yom tov day (Shulchan Aruch 527:13). In addition, every effort must be made to complete the preparations early enough on Friday afternoon so that the food will be edible well before Shabbos. Nevertheless, if the preparations were left until late Friday afternoon, they may still be done (Beiur Halacha 527:1).

The food items used for the eruv tavshilin must remain intact as long as preparations are being made for Shabbos. Perishable items used for the eruv tavshilin should be stored in the refrigerator as needed. If the eruv tavshilin foods were consumed or discarded, the eruv tavshilin ceases to be valid (OC 527:15).

Matzah is used on Pesach as the baked item of the eruv tavshilin. It is customary to use this matzah for an additional mitzvah as one of the two "loaves" of lechem mishnah at each of the three Shabbos meals, and to consume the matzah at the third meal of Shalosh Seudos.

O. If a person is planning to be fully prepared for Shabbos before yom tov starts, is an eruv tavshilin still necessary?

A. Rav Moshe Feinstein zt"l understands the opinion of the Magen Avrohom (O.C. 527:1) to be that it is not absolutely necessary to make an eruv tavshilin if you are completely prepared for Shabbos. Nevertheless, Igros Moshe (Orach Chaim, 5:20:26) notes that even if you are not planning to cook or bake on yom tov for Shabbos, an eruv tavshilin should be performed as a precaution for an unexpected need. Rav Moshe z"tl in Orach Chaim, 5:37:9, writes that a bracha should not be recited in such a case

Q. What should be done if I forgot to perform an eruv tavshilin?

A. If you forgot to perform an eruv tavshilin on Thursday, you may rely on the eruv tavshilin performed by the rabbi of the city, since it is customary for him to include his entire community in his eruv. We may rely on this only if the eruv tavshilin was not forgotten due to negligence (Shulchan Oruch ibid). In addition, we may rely on the rabbi's eruv one time (MB 527:22). The Kaf Hachaim 527:48 suggests that this limitation of relying on the rabbi's eruv only applies to consecutive vomim tovim. However, the Chavei Adam (Klal 102:7) questions whether we may rely on the rabbi's communal eruv a second time, even if they were not consecutive times.

Another option is to have someone who made an eruv tavshilin cook for the one who forgot. In this case, ownership of the ingredients must be transferred to the one who made an eruv and is allowed to cook. This person may then proceed to cook even in the home of the person who did not make an eruv tavshilin (Shulchan Aruch OC 527:20).

Chaq Sameach!

for Erev You Tov, Thursday April 21

When Yom Tov falls on Friday (or Thursday-Friday), we make an ET on Erev Yom Tov, which begins the preparations for Shabbat, so that we will be able to continue cooking for Shabbat on Friday. Without the ET, cooking (and other things) is allowed on Yom Tov, only for the day itself. Making an ET on Erev Yom Tov, permits cooking, baking, and lighting candles on Friday (Yom Tov) for Shabbat.

Sometime before Yom Tov, one takes a Matza and a cooked food (hard boiled egg, piece of gefilte fish, piece of chicken, etc.) which will be eaten on Shabbat (many eat the ET at Seuda Shlishit, but it only must last until Shabbat arrives to be effective). With both items in hand, one recites the bracha...

בּרוּךְ אַתַּה ה אֵוּלִקינוּ מֵלֶךְ הַעוֹלַם, אֲשֵׁר קְדְשֵׁנוּ בִּמְצִוֹתִיו, וְצִנֵנוּ עַל מִצְוַת עֵרוּכ.

and then makes the Eruv declaration... [One should explain ET to his family, either at the time of making the Eruv, or some convenient time before or after.] It is still traditional to say it in Aramaic, but you should feel free to follow the Aramaic with Hebrew and/or English...

בְּדִיז עֵרוּבָא יְהֵא שָׁרֵא לְנָא לְמֵיפָא וּלְבַשְּׁלְא וּלְאַטְמָנָא, וּלְאַדְלָקָא שְׁרָגָא, וּלְמֶעְבֵּד כָּל צְּרְכָּנָא, מִיּוֹמֵא טָבָא לִשַׁבִּתָא, [לֵנוּ וּלְכַל הַדָּרִים בַּעִיר הַוֹּאת.]

בָּעֵרוּב הַזֶּה יִהְיֶה מֻתָּר לָנוּ לֶאֶפוֹת וּלְבַשֵׁל וּלְהַטְמִין וּלְהַדְלִיק נֵר וְלַעֲשׁוֹת כֵּל צַרְכֵינוּ מִיוֹם טוֹב לְשֵׁבֵּת [לַנוּ וּלְכַל הַדַּרִים בַּעִיר הַזֹּאת.]

With this EIRUV it becomes permitted for us to bake, cook, to "hide" food (refers to packing food into an oven in such a way that not only will heat be maintained, but increased as well), to light candles, and do all other needs on Yom Tov for Shabbat [for us and all Jews who live in this city].

After the bracha and declaration, one places the Eiruv items in a secure place so that they will not accidentally be eaten before cooking for Shabbat is finished.

REMINDER: Kindling fire is forbidden on Yom Tov. Extinguishing a fire is forbidden. Only lighting a fire from a pre-existing flame is permitted. As is handling the candle, match, etc.

The bracketed phrase in the Eiruv declaration is said when making the Eiruv not just for yourself and family, but for others who might have forgotten to make their own Eiruv. This is usually done by the Rav of the kehila. It can also be done by others. This extra measure technically needs that the Eiruv foods be given to someone to acquire them on behalf of others. Consult your Rav...
